

INSOMNIA - The Advanced Hedonistic Experience

Berlin - this city is both a premonition and a promise of wild party nights around the clock and the centre of a modern, hedonistic lifestyle.

INSOMNIA is a club where cosmopolitan free spirits, kinky freaks, weird birds of paradise, urban night owls, crazy party people, creatives and travellers from all over the world celebrate together to the pulsating beat of the night.

But INSOMNIA is more than just another club for dancing, it is a hedonistic parallel universe with libidinous parties, casual intimacy and space for experimentation with non-traditional relationship structures, sexual staging & self-awareness, multisexual currents - all genders & orientations.

INSOMNIA is a stylish ambience in the historic ballroom, rooms furnished with love for detail on several floors, a noble wooden parquet that encourages dancing to the music of the best Berlin scene DJs, a well-stocked bar with premium spirits and interesting cocktails and also a VIP lounge with a noble flair.

On Fridays, different music genres, mottos and party organisers alternate: whether Master & Servant - Depeche Mode, Flashback Friday - 90's Party, Libidoh - Techno, Angel in Bondage - Gothic & Dark Wave or Young Love - Minimal & Electro.

Saturdays belong entirely to electronic music with Techno, Electro, NuTrance, Progressive, Goa and new party concepts: Hedomanie - Hedonistic Dance & Playparty, Kinktastisch - Dance & Fetish Party, Goa Liebe - Sexy Goa - Trance, Saturday Night Fuck - Techno/Swinger Party. International and Berlin artists, performers, acrobats and musicians show colourful spectacles, weird stories, extravagant performances and burlesque/boylesque. Often you will also find vernissages and exhibitions of photographers, media artists, designers, painters.

Outside the wild weekend events, the event concepts during the week are just as diverse: Cuddle parties, intimate fitness/tantra massage/bondage/G-spot/polyamory workshops, tango evenings, fetish specials, cuckold & wifesharing, CFNM & CMNF - in short, a clean, safe sexual escapade infrastructure for the emancipated woman, for modern couples who want to be known together instead of cheating and heteroflexible men who are also happy to make themselves available as erotic vicarious agents, in short, a safe sex lab for everyone.

INSOMNIA is frivolous, elegant, libertine, obscene and full of fresh ideas - a skilful 21st century analogy to the "Wild Twenties" in Berlin, created by Dominique Insomnia, a true figurehead of hedonism.

Dominique's roots lie in S&M and fetish. In 1987 she opened her first SM studio, and at the age of 20 she founded the sadomasochistic interest group "Interessengemeinschaft e.V.", with which she actively campaigned for tolerance towards SM & fetish. For nine years she organised the Insomnia parties at Berlin's KitKatClub. She produced "Lust Pur" with Conny Dachs and "Intimes Deutschland" Beate Uhse TV. Her fans also know her from the programme "Wahre Liebe", from the programme of the local channel "TV Berlin" and from countless TV appearances, e.g. Eins gegen Eins, Markus Lanz, etc. Since 2006 she is running Insomnia.
